

Prototype 3

Gait supporting device with vibrational live feedback

Overview of the prototype

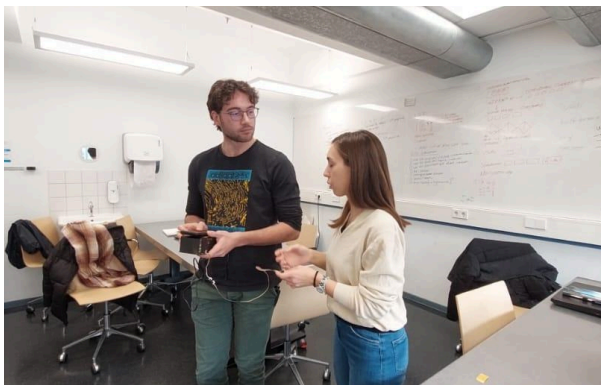

Button controller for the vibration of the left and right motor

Inside of the prototype with the two vibration motor

Test session

1. Set up of the device and explanation of the task

2. Actual test in action and observation of the participants behaviour

3. Discussion and comments about the test. Evaluation of the prototype by both the participants